3.1 Conditions

3.1.1	Description
A.	LSOs are provided when a customer requests an item that is not offered in a standard tariff. The Telephone Company may either modify a standard tariff item or design equipment or circuits especially for the customer or quote a price which must be accepted by the customer in writing.
1.	A price quotation is valid for 45 days from the date it was quoted to the customer. After 45 days, the quotation may be revised. No additional quotation charge will apply unless engineering reevaluation is involved.

3.2 Cancellation Prior to Furnishing of Service/Facilities

3.2.1	Description
A.	If a customer cancels an LSO request prior to the furnishing of service, the customer is required to pay the Telephone Company for any work already begun.
B.	If the customer asked for a price quotation to which a quotation charge applies and withdraws the request after engineering work is begun but before the price is quoted, the quotation charge applies.
C.	If the customer cancels the order after accepting a price quotation, the quotation charge applies and in addition the customer is obligated to pay for ordering supplies, any other paper work and any engineering installation or other costs the Telephone Company has incurred up to the day he cancels, less a credit for estimated salvage, if any.
